

Beer Steins

Appreciating a great beer in a fine beer stein is a pleasure enjoyed by beer aficionados around the world who understand how the right stein truly enhances the beer drinking experience.

Germans are known the world over for their great beer and beautiful beer steins. Traditionally, beer steins are made of stoneware and have been collected and coveted by beer drinkers for centuries. Authentic beer steins are also made of glass, pewter, porcelain, even some materials you'd never expect to drink out of – we've heard of and seen some wooden ones in our time, for example....

In the 1500s, beer was consumed heartily – almost 2 liters a day per person and decorated beer steins created by Renaissance artists become very popular. It wasn't long before Tankards were decorated with shields and historical, allegorical, and biblical scenes. Beer drinking had become a pleasure for the eyes and that tradition continues today.

Traditional beer steins – what we think of as German beer steins – usually have a pewter lid with a thumb-lever so they can be lifted and opened with one hand. The lid started as a sanitary practice and today they are highly prized and no beer collection is really complete with some, or many (at least in our humble opinion!) of these beautiful authentic beer steins.

Some beer steins are intricately designed, some are whimsical, many are thematic. We carry the largest selection you'll find anywhere - we've got something to please everyone. Here at 1001beersteins.com we stock a huge inventory – the largest you'll find anywhere, so you can't visit without finding an authentic beer stein to fall in love with – for yourself or as a gift – we're certain of it.

We're also certain you'll love our service. We deliver quickly (no long wait for imported goods like you might find from other importers) because we stock our items so you can have them quickly –when you want them. We are experienced packing beer steins and so your stein will arrive in perfect condition, ready to use and be appreciated. Here's the deal though: if there is any damage, and that hasn't happened yet – we'll replace your beer stein at no cost and we'll do it quickly.

We're a family owned business and your satisfaction means the world to us. We're in business to bring you the highest quality beer mugs, pilsners, beer collectibles including tankards and beer steins of every description. Truly – if you can't find it here, it probably doesn't exist!

Sometimes you prefer to appreciate or serve a beer in a Pilsner glass or a beer mug. Whether you're looking for or beer steins, beer collectibles, beer glasses, we've got you covered.

Amy Posner | www.amyposner.com | amy@amyposner.com | 360.357.0859

Beer steins make great gift for any occasion in a beer connoisseur's life. Whether you're looking for a traditional German Beer Stein or maybe something fun and unusual – you can search by PRICE, CATEGORY, and BEST SELLERS AND SALES and find something that will suit your taste and your budget.

Thanks for visiting our site – we welcome your comments, your thoughts and your business. Our satisfaction is your satisfaction.